

Dear LD25 Friends and Neighbors,

I am thrilled to announce that I am running for re-election to the Arizona State House of Representatives for Legislative District 25!

Serving you over two terms (2023-2024 and 2025-2026) has been, and still is, a profound honor. As we have joined forces, we've made tremendous strides in advancing policies that truly make a difference for our community.

Now, I'm ready to continue the fight for a brighter, stronger future for Arizona.

During my time in office, I have worked tirelessly to strengthen our economy by supporting legislation that fosters job creation and reduces unnecessary red tape for local businesses.

I've supported policies to protect individual freedoms, ensuring that our fundamental rights are upheld and respected. Additionally, I have prioritized education by advocating for resources that empower students and elevate teachers while promoting fiscal responsibility to benefit Arizona families.

Re-electing me means continuing to build on the progress we've made. There is still so much to do. We can't quit now!

Together, we can keep growing opportunities for hardworking Arizonans, ensuring that our state remains a beacon of liberty and prosperity.

I am committed to delivering results for you, and with your support, we can expand on our successes and create even greater opportunities for our community.
