

As the general election draws near, it is imperative that we take full advantage of early voting to ensure our voices are heard. Please remember to submit your early ballots on or before November 1st to actively participate in shaping Arizona's future. Here is what you need to know about key propositions on the ballot and why a "Yes" vote is essential.

Propositions

- PROP 133 seeks to ban ranked choice voting and requires partisan primaries, as mandated by HCR2033, to maintain the integrity and clarity of our electoral process.
- PROP 134 focuses on enhancing citizen initiatives by amending the signature distribution requirements, as outlined in SCR1015, thereby promoting a more inclusive and representative democratic process.
- PROP 135 addresses the governor's emergency powers with HCR2039, ensuring emergency declarations are managed effectively and in a timely manner, safeguarding public health and safety.
- PROP 136 aims to streamline the resolution of ballot measure disputes through SCR1041, by introducing legal challenges to the constitutionality of initiatives, increasing accountability within our voting system.

Propositions continued...

- PROP 137 introduces amendments SCR1044 to end term limits and retention elections for justices and judges, fostering a stable judiciary while allowing for experienced leadership.
- PROP 138 is aimed at addressing tipped worker wages through SCR1040, ensuring fair compensation and improved working conditions for our vital service industry workers.
- PROP 311 seeks to honor those who lost their lives in the line of duty, as laid out in SCR1006, underscoring the importance of recognizing and supporting our public servants. Learn more here.
- PROP 312 offers a property tax refund for non-enforcement of public nuisance laws through HCR2023, encouraging community responsibility and involvement.

More Propositions

- PROP 313 targets life imprisonment for the heinous crime of child sex trafficking, as described in SCR1021, reinforcing our commitment to

- protecting vulnerable populations.
- PROP 314 focuses on immigration and border law enforcement under HCR2060, ensuring security and prosperity by bolstering our law enforcement capabilities.
- PROP 315 calls for legislative ratification of state agency rules through SCR1012, promoting transparency and regulatory efficiency.

Vote NO

I strongly urge a "No" vote on Propositions 139 and 140, which do not align with our conservative goals.
