

As we come together to celebrate Veteran's Day, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all the brave men and women who have served our country in the armed forces.

Their sacrifices and dedication to protecting our freedoms and ensuring our safety are truly commendable. Today, let us honor their service and express our deepest appreciation for their selfless commitment to our nation.

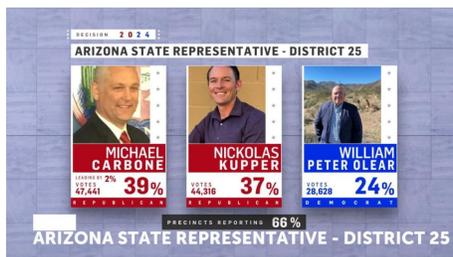

Shifting gears to the topic of the General Election of last week, I am truly honored and humbled by your support in re-electing me to serve as your representative in Arizona's Legislative District 25.

Your trust in my leadership fills me with immense gratitude and renews my commitment to work diligently on your behalf.

AP declare Michael Carbone and Nickolas Kupper as winners for Arizona State Reps - District 25.

Over the past years, we have faced our share of challenges, but together, we have made significant strides in strengthening our community and upholding the values we hold dear.

I am eager to work with Representative Elect, Nick Kupper and Senator Elect, Tim Dunn to continue building on this momentum and addressing the issues that matter most to you, such as:

- protecting school choice
- securing our border
- fostering economic growth as we support local businesses
- balancing the state budget on a yearly basis

KEEPING ARIZONA STATE HOUSE RED & STRONG

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to everyone who played a role in this election — from our tireless volunteers to those who made their voices heard by casting their ballots.

Your involvement and dedication have truly made a difference.

My achievements and ongoing efforts underscore my dedication to enhancing the quality of life for all Arizonans, especially those in LD25.

THANK YOU FOR RE-ELECTING ME

When I win, LD25 wins!

*Let's continue making Arizona
better together!*

As we move forward, I am committed to maintaining open communication and working collaboratively with each of you to meet the needs of our district.

Please feel free to reach out with any concerns, suggestions, or ideas you might have.

Together, we will continue to build a future that reflects our shared hopes and aspirations.

Thank you once again for your support and confidence. I am excited to continue serving you and our incredible community.

Sincerely,

Michael Carbone
